Nightlight® Christian Adoptions has worked in Russia since 1992. Russia requires adoption agencies hold a permit to conduct adoption activities within the territory of the Russian Federation. Nightlight received its first permit in 2001. In July 2009 our permit to conduct direct adoption activities was revoked due to the late filing of a required report. We have programs in several regions, including St. Petersburg and Tomsk. Until we are able to obtain a permit for in-country activities, we are partnering with other agencies which hold permits and have temporarily assumed responsibility for our in-country staff. We continue to maintain an office and staff in Moscow as a registered Non-Governmental Organization.

CHILDREN AVAILABLE
The orphanages in Russia are called Baby Houses and Detsky Dom’s (Children’s Homes). Babies from a few months of age to about 3-4 years stay in Baby Houses, while older children stay in Children’s Homes. Children’s Homes are further divided between preschool orphanages (ages 4-7), school age orphanages (7-16) and combined orphanages. Some orphanages specialize in children with special needs, such as learning disabilities, vision impairments, orthopedic problems, etc. Many times children who have not been put in school by their parents will be assigned to orphanages where they will receive more remedial assistance, even though their intellectual capabilities may be good.

Not all children in Russian orphanages are available for adoption. Children become available if their parents have relinquished them for adoption, are deceased, or when the court terminates their parental rights. Like children in foster care within the United States the reasons for terminating parental rights are varied, but generally include neglect. Once a child is available for adoption, they must be placed on a local registry of adoptable children (for 1 month), then on a regional registry (1 month) and then on a Federal Data Bank of adoptable children (6 months), this process takes a total of 8 months. A child may be adopted by a Russian family or taken into foster care by relatives at any time prior to international adoption.

Babies are generally at least 9 months of age before they are eligible for international adoption. When a child has siblings, and the sibling is eligible for adoption, the siblings must be adopted together. In general, more families are waiting to adopt girls than boys of all ages. We will share as much information as we are able to obtain on a child; however, there will never be as much information on a child’s background as we would like. Information on the child referred to you will be obtained on your first referral trip to Russia. The medical information is more critical for evaluating a baby for adoption as this is essentially all of the information available. As a child gets older, the importance of character, personality, temperament and intelligence increases.

ELIGIBILITY TO ADOPT
Married couples or single women may apply to adopt from Russia. We require that the adopting parents be no more than 45 years older than the child, although this requirement may be relaxed somewhat in the cases of older children. The parents must be in good health. Questions as to the number of other children in the family and other considerations are evaluated on a case by case basis depending on the characteristics of the child who is sought for adoption. The orphanage director, the adoption officials or the court may impose other restrictions as they consider necessary or advisable.

PROCESS

It generally takes around 8-14 months to complete the adoption process (and sometimes longer for little girls). First you will need to complete your homestudy, get CIS (formerly INS) approval and prepare your dossier for Russia (about 3-5 months). Once your dossier has been filed with the local adoption officials in Russia, you will be considered for a referral of a child. The more flexible you are and the older the child you hope to adopt is, the shorter the timeframe to wait for a child. No advance information on available children can be provided by persons other than the Russian adoption officials. Providing videos and medical information on children are specifically not allowed. (When older children have been identified through activities unrelated to adoption (i.e., hosting programs or missionary trips, the referral of the identified child can usually be obtained if they are legally eligible for adoption.)

Both parents must make the first trip, lasting about one week, to Russia to receive the official referral of a child. On this trip, you will receive a referral and get to know the child. You will be able to ask a variety of questions concerning the child’s medical and social history. In addition, you will be able to access independent physicians to assist you in evaluating a child. If you do not accept the first referral, you may be able to receive a second referral on the same trip, depending on the age of the child requested. Once you have accepted the referral, you return home to await a court date. The court date is usually set around 8 weeks after your first trip (allowing time for verification to be received from Moscow that your child has been on the Federal Data Bank for more than six months and the court to review your dossier).

Both adopting parents are required to be present in court. Russian law provides for a 10-day waiting period before an adoption decree becomes effective. This 10-day period can be waived by the judge if s/he believes it is in the best interest of the child, but such a waiver is not common. Once the adoption is completed, a new birth certificate is issued for the child, a Russian passport is issued in the child’s new name and you travel to Moscow to obtain the child’s immigrant visa. You would normally travel directly home from Moscow.

TRAVEL

Once your dossier is completed, we will provide you with a “Travel Package” which outlines all of the details of your travel (2-3 trips). We will make all of your in-country lodging reservations and you may make whatever air travel arrangements you prefer (although we will also help you with this step if requested). Your first trip will be about 5 days and your court trip will typically be 5 days. Assuming the 10 days are not waived, your third trip will be about 7 days (only one parent needs to travel on the third trip).

POST ADOPTION

Once you return home, you will need to immediately register your child’s passport with the Russian Embassy (we will provide you with instructions). At this time, Russia requires that you complete a minimum of 4 post-adoption visits with your homestudy provider to evaluate your child’s adjustment into your family. Along with several pictures, these reports will be sent to the orphanage staff and officials for receipt in Russia at 6 months, 1 year, 2 years and 3 years after your child’s adoption is finalized. (Please be prepared to be flexible as government requirements for post-adoption reports occasionally change and you will be expected to fulfill the most recent requirements.)

COSTS

The costs for an adoption from Russia are explained on the current Fee Schedule and range from $33,400 to $42,300. The Fees and Costs include Program Fees, Orphanage Donations, and Estimated Client Coordinated Expenses including travel, lodging, CIS fees and misc. costs. The fees for children 7 and older are reduced to so that families can be encouraged to adopt older children. We make every effort to give you a realistic budget to avoid surprises. However, variations may result from differences in homestudy costs, travel and actual length of stay in Russia. If you receive the full tax credit of $13,170, then your fees and expenses can be as low as $23,230. Also, if you adopt a sibling group of two, you may receive up to $26,340 in the tax credit/ For each additional sibling, the tax credit/refund can be increased by $13,170. This may mean that the cost of your adoption could be nearly paid for by the tax credit. This usually takes a few years to recoup all these tax credits if you adopt more than one child. In addition, your out-of-pocket expenses may further be reduced if you receive scholarships or other employer-provided adoption benefits.

Please contact Kate Zyubenko, Kate@Nightlight.org, (970) 663-5501 with any questions.
Nightlight Christian Adoptions is licensed by the Department of Social Services in California, Colorado and South Carolina to select suitable families for children needing adoption. We are also affiliated with A Helping Hand Adoption Agency, based in Kentucky. The selection of adoptive parents is based on their eligibility to meet state and agency requirements as well as the requirements and preferences of the applicable foreign country. The homestudy process also will assess their capacity as adoptive parents and the characteristics of children whose needs they can meet.

RESIDENCE: Nightlight works with families living throughout the United States. No specific residence requirements are applied other than those stated by the involved countries and their respective governments.

CITIZENSHIP: At least one (or sole) adopting parent must be a United States citizen.

RELIGION: Applicants must be committed to providing their child with a constructive, wholesome and spiritual home environment.

HEALTH: Adoptive applicants must give evidence of good health, both physical and mental, which will be verified during the application process by a letter from the applicant's physician.

AGE: Generally, we believe that there should be no more than 45 years difference between the age of the adopting parents and the age of the adopted child. However, some countries have stricter or more relaxed requirements.

MARRIAGE: Adoptive applicants are encouraged to have been married a minimum of three years when the homestudy begins. We hope this period will provide the couple sufficient time to establish a home, financial security, and to adjust to the marriage as well as to each other. Married applicants must have a satisfying and secure marriage. Single parents are eligible to adopt if they meet the qualifications of a stable home environment, financial security and have a strong support network of family and friends. Eligibility for single parents to adopt varies among countries.

EDUCATION: Classes and reading pertaining to parenting skills and adoption issues are required of adoptive families. Our goal is to prepare you to be the best parents possible for your child.

POST-PLACEMENT SUPERVISION: Most countries require the adopting parents' homestudy agency to supervise child's placement after the adoption for a period of 3-5 years. Once the child is home, adopting families must agree to have post-adoption reports based on the country's and Nightlight's requirements. These reports and photos of the child and family are then forwarded to the child's country. In addition, some countries require families to register their child with the Embassy of the foreign government in the United States.

FINANCES: Adoptive parents must be able to pay fees and costs based on the fee schedule for their specific country. All fees and costs must be paid before travel. Special assistance may be possible based on the needs of the child to be adopted and the financial needs of the family.

PREGNANCY: Before you begin the adoption process, you need to complete all your infertility treatments so you can truly be ready to be the best parent for your adopted child. If you become pregnant while in the adoption process, notify our office immediately, we will place your file on hold. When you are ready to consider adoption again – generally at least when your child is nearing the first birthday – call us to discuss reactivating your file.

ADOPTION OF SUBSEQUENT CHILDREN: To have adequate time for attachment and bonding, it is important to have a minimum of one year with the child/ren in the home before beginning another adoption.

If you have questions about these policies, please talk with us. The guidelines we have established are designed to make your adoption successful.

If you are adopting internationally, your agency must have a Supervised Provider Contract on file with our office and must be in the process of obtaining their Hague accreditation.

What if we are not Christians?
The Christian in our name explains who we are. We work with families from a variety of religious backgrounds.

What are the different countries you work with?
We currently have active programs in China, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Taiwan, Uganda and Ukraine.

Approximately how long does it take to adopt internationally?
It depends on the country you choose to adopt from as well as the time it takes you to complete your homestudy and dossier, but typically an international adoption will take about 8-24 months from the start of the homestudy to finalization. Please refer to the country descriptions for more detailed information.

What is the adoption process?
(See the individual country descriptions for more detailed information on the adoption process in each country.)

Homestudy – The homestudy is an evaluation and education process required by the State to determine your preparedness to parent through adoption. A homestudy consists of three components: paperwork, education and interviews with a social worker.

Dossier – The documents required by the foreign government to allow you to adopt a child from the country. These documents typically must be notarized and apostilled.

Referral – Based on the information you submit in your dossier, the foreign government will issue you an official referral of a child(ren) for adoption. Depending upon the country you are adopting from, you will either travel to the country to receive the referral and meet the child or you will receive information on the child including pictures and medicals prior to travel.

Court – For some countries, you will travel to the country for your Court date where the judge will issue you the Adoption Decree and the adoption will be finalized. In other countries, the adoption is finalized overseas in court before you travel.

Post Adoption – If required, you will register your child’s passport with the embassy and cooperate with your homestudy agency in having Post Adoption reports completed and will provide pictures of your child with these reports, as specified by each individual country. During this time, Nightlight wants to equip you to be a successful adoptive parent.

What if we have not decided which country we will adopt from?
If possible, learn more about the countries through the internet (see Resources at the end of the FAQs), adoption groups, the agency and other adoptive families so you can make your decision. If you decide on a country and then change your mind after the completion of the homestudy and/or dossier, while not too difficult, there will likely be a delay in your adoption as you complete any additional forms or paperwork for the new dossier.

Will Nightlight allow us to pursue a domestic and international adoption simultaneously?
We would advise you to only pursue one program at a time, as each child needs time to bond and feel secure within your family. However if you are still unsure you may want to begin your homestudy and discuss your options with the agency staff. Before the homestudy is completed, you will need to make a decision as to which program you will pursue.

Can we be undergoing fertility treatments while in the adoption process?
No. To be healthy adoptive parents, you need to have completed all your infertility treatments and given yourself the time necessary to grieve for the biological children you have dreamed of having. Only after this important step can you be truly ready to begin the adoption process. Please talk to agency staff if you have any concerns about this requirement.

What if we become pregnant during the adoption process?
Notify our office and your homestudy provider immediately. It is our policy to put files on hold once we are notified of a client’s pregnancy, your file will be on hold until your child is at least 1 year old in order to allow time for attachment and bonding. When you are ready to begin the adoption process again, contact our office to discuss your adoption plans.

What do you recommend we do to help prepare ourselves for an international adoption?
Learn your child’s language (at least basic words and phrases) to make your child’s transition into your family easier and help you communicate with your child during the first few months after your adoption as he/she is learning English. Learn about your child’s country and culture so that you can ensure they do not lose their rich cultural heritage. Attend support groups and events either through the agency or in your area and talk with other families who have adopted children internationally. You may also want to begin your child’s Lifebook; please refer to our newsletter for information on upcoming classes in Southern California.

What is an adoption homestudy?
A homestudy is an evaluation and education tool to help us, as an agency, and you, as adopting parents, to determine your preparedness to parent through adoption. It is not a psychological analysis; our intent is to prepare you for the special needs of an adoptee and to help you build important parenting skills. The homestudy is different for each adoption as everyone has different histories and experiences that they bring into the process. It consists of paperwork, education, and interviews. If you live in Colorado, South Carolina or Southern California, Nightlight Christian Adoptions will perform your homestudy. To learn more about the homestudy process, view our webinars:

What is “the Hague”?
The Hague Convention is a program that governs the way international adoptions are conducted throughout the world. The United States ratified and implemented this program. It basically puts the decision making process and control in the hands of a central authority in each country that works in international adoptions. One of the major components of the Hague is the education of adoptive parents. Each prospective adoptive parent is required by Federal mandate, to take a minimum of 10 hours of education, in addition to the homestudy. So, it actually is a ‘federal regulation’ for anyone adopting internationally according to Hague Standard 96.48(b)(2).

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE DOSSIER

What is a Dossier?
A dossier is a collection of required authenticated/legalized documents that is sent to a foreign country in order to process the adoption of a child in that country’s legal system.

What documents are included in the dossier?
Each country has its own requirements as to specific documents and the number required; however a dossier will typically consist of your homestudy, statement of your commitment to submit post-adoption reports, CIS approval, copies of passports, marriage/birth certificates, medical clearances, employment verification, confirmation of housing and police clearances. All dossier/court documents for a foreign adoption must be authenticated.

What does authenticating or legalizing a document mean?
In order for the foreign court to recognize a document as legal, it requires the following:

Step 1 - The person signing the prepared document must have his/her signature notarized. A Notary Public certifies that they witnessed a specific person sign a specific document. The marriage or birth certificate has a certified signature by the state office where it is issued. The signature of the notary public is on file with the Secretary of State office in their state, allowing it to be authenticated (apostilled or certified depending on the country).

Step 2 – The notarized/certified document is then sent to the Secretary of State and an apostille or certification is attached, completing the authentication process (if the country you are adopting from is part of the Hague Treaty).
What steps are involved in authentication?
Documents issued in one country which need to be used in another country must be “authenticated” or “legalized” before they can be recognized as valid in the foreign country. All documents must be notarized, and then the notarized document is sent to the Secretary of State where they are apostilled (or certified).

What is a notary public?
A notary public has the legal authority to verify the signer’s signature (i.e. confirm the identity of the person signing the document).

What is an apostille (ah-puh-steel)?
An apostille is an internationally recognized affidavit from a Secretary of State or Commonwealth that verifies that the notary public, or Clerk/Recorder, whose signature is subscribed to a document, is duly authorized to act as such in the state where the signature was performed.

QUESTIONS ABOUT REFERRALS OF CHILDREN

What are the typical ages of available children?
6 months to 15 years. Typically the children are first available for adoption in their home country and will likely be 6 months old before being available for adoption. In addition, CIS requires that a child be adopted before their 16th birthday for entry into the United States.

Are there any age restrictions placed on the adopting parents?
Our agency has a policy that maintains a 45 year age difference between the child and youngest parent. Each country also has its own requirements; please refer to the country descriptions for more information.

Is it possible to adopt unrelated children?
It is not possible to adopt unrelated children through OUR agency. It is our policy to place biological siblings together. If you are interested in adopting more than one child at the same time, there are many siblings in need of good families. In our program, we do not place unrelated children at the same time in the same family. If you wish to pursue another adoption after adopting one child, it is our policy to have the first child in your home a minimum of 1 year before proceeding on another adoption. This allows formation of attachment and bonding between your family and each child.

Will we be provided with medical records and a video? Will we know if the child has any major medical problems?
You will be provided with any available information on the child (including a medical report) when the child is referred to you. There are many common diagnoses that normally do not impact the future health and well being of the children. However, it is important that you make the decision on which child to adopt yourself. If you are traveling to the country to receive the referral, such as in Russia and Ukraine, you will have the opportunity to interact with the child and ask questions of the orphanage staff. In some instances you may also be able to make arrangements to have the child evaluated by an independent medical facility if you so desire.

Are we permitted to submit the medical information we receive to a physician specializing in international adoption for review?
After you receive the medical information, it is possible for you to have a physician review the medical. In fact, whenever possible, we highly recommend that you have such a medical professional do this. If your child has a special medical condition, you may also want to have your child’s medical report and profile reviewed by a specialist. While the child is still in the placing country, you may also be able to make arrangements for a physician to examine the child.

Nightlight provides a list of medical specialists who evaluate and care for internationally adopted children:

TRAVEL QUESTIONS

Once we arrive in country, are we met by a representative at the airport?
You would be met at the airport and driven to your hotel. You will always have a driver and/or translator with you for any adoption related trips (such as the orphanage and court). Depending on the time of year and how many families are traveling at a given time, the driver may also be able take you sightseeing. If you travel at the same time as another family, you can split their fees with the other family.

Do both spouses have to travel?
Both parents are required to travel to Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Taiwan, Uganda, and Ukraine.

Can we bring our other children with us when we travel?
It depends. This may sound like a non-answer, but the question requires a rather complex look at the purpose of the trip(s), the country involved, the age of the child(ren) you are adopting, the age of your other child(ren), whether you will have another adult with you who can care for your child(ren) when they are unable to be with you, and other more subtle factors. So it shouldn’t surprise you that one size doesn’t fit all. We share the goal of making your adoption experience as positive and memorable as possible. Please discuss this question with your social worker or adoption service provider as well as Nightlight staff to better determine the right answer for you.

POST-PLACEMENT/ADOPTION QUESTIONS

How many post adoption reports are required?

It depends on which country you will be adopting from (see country description). Nightlight requires all families to have a brief post-adoption report conducted one month after placement of the child in the home to help families with any adjustment issues. Generally you will be required to provide reports completed by a licensed adoption agency and pictures of your child every 6 months for up to 2-4 years after your adoption, or until your child is 18. Usually reports required after the child is home for a few years are reports that you prepare and send to Nightlight. However, be prepared to be flexible as government requirements sometimes change and you will be expected to fulfill the most recent requirement.

What are we required to provide post-adoption reports?

Your child’s country of origin simply wants to make sure that the children they place are happy and healthy in their new families. By requiring post-adoption reports they are able to watch your child grow and provide current information to your child’s orphanage caretakers. In addition, these reports allow the government the ability to “prove” to the general population that in spite of rumors to the contrary, children adopted internationally are well taken care of and are happy in their new homes.

What kind of support services do you offer before, during and after placement?

In addition to you’re the country coordinator and your homestudy provider and other agency personnel, we have a Director of Family Support Services who is available to help you throughout the process. If our agency cannot provide you direct assistance, we will refer you to someone who can help. We also hold reunions and other events throughout the year which allow families to get together and visit with the friends they have made over the years. Classes also allow families to get to know each other and talk about their experiences adopting. In addition we provide informational webinars and have extensive resource information.

FEES AND EXPENSES

What would you estimate the cost for the adoption to be?

Depending on the country you are adopting from, the age of the child and the number of required trips, your total estimated costs for an adoption can range from $25,000 - $43,000.

What are “Program Fees”?

Nightlight establishes a budget for costs each year based on the number of adoptions it estimates completing in each of its programs (domestic, international and embryo) during the year. Based on these estimates, we establish program fees for adoptions in the various programs, taking into consideration the amount of staff time and expenses which will be involved in maintaining the program for the year. Of course, it would be prohibitive to allocate all of the costs (payroll, rent, insurance, supplies, etc.) to one adoption in one program. Nevertheless, we will incur those costs even if the number of adoptions is less than we estimate. Therefore, we establish program fees for each adoption program which we believe closely relates to our actual costs in running the program – not the actual time in completing or working on a specific adoption.

Why are fees paid, non-refundable?

Our program fees are paid in phases to enable families to budget their costs and to minimize the financial risk in the event that an adoption is not completed or a family withdraws from the program. The fee schedule provides for the majority of the costs to be paid close to the time when the adoption is finalized. As explained above, the program fees are established based on the costs to maintain a program, not on the time spent on each individual adoption.

Are my only other expenses my travel, accommodations, homestudy, CIS and Embassy fees?

Those would be the majority of your other expenses. Also included in your out of pocket expenses would be your apostilles, gifts to the orphanage staff and children and driver/translator fees.

Is any portion of my fees tax deductible?

Yes. A $3000 tax deductible donation is included in the program fees (China, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Taiwan, and Ukraine). This donation is used for humanitarian aid and to improve the conditions in the orphanages.

What are the fees to adopt a second child?

Biological siblings may be adopted from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Taiwan, and Ukraine. The fees for siblings will vary depending on the country. Please contact the country program coordinator for details.

Are we required to take large sums of American currency with us, or does Nightlight wire the money?

Monies are usually wired before travel. If you decide to work with us, we will cover this information with you pre-travel.
Is there financial assistance available?

- Tax Credit
  Tax Benefits for Adoption has opened up a window of opportunity for many families who previously found the financial obstacles to adopting to be insurmountable. If you adopt in 2010 or 2011, you may apply up to $13,170 of your adoption expenses toward your federal taxes when you file your 2010 or 2011 taxes, depending upon the year that your adoption was finalized. If you adopt 2-3 siblings, you can get double/triple the tax credit/refund. This means that you have the potential to have nearly all of your adoption fees and expenses paid for by the IRS.

  If you do not receive the full $13,170 in tax credit, you may be getting money back from the IRS for your adoption expenses. The tax credit is refundable for adoptions completed in 2011, which means you may get money from the government if your federal tax liability is less than the $13,170. So you could receive some or all of the balance as a refund on your federal taxes. However, if you are just beginning the adoption process and most likely will be completing the adoption in 2012, you can only receive the tax credit and NOT the refund. So if you pay only $5,000 in federal taxes, you can receive only $5,000 back each year for 5 years, until you reach the $13,170 in tax credit. (Of course, you must qualify for the credit.) For more information about the tax credit and other financial resources go to: http://www.nightlight.org/funding-your-adoption.

- Employee Benefits
  Many companies offer employer-provided adoption benefits. The company may reimburse you for some of your adoption expenses. Check with your human resource department to see if your company provides adoption benefits.

  If your company has employer-provided adoption assistance, you can receive up to $13,170 in tax-free income. Also, your employer can reduce your salary to pay the adoption benefit so that you can receive $13,170 in tax-free income.

  In addition to receiving tax-free income, you can also receive up to $13,170 as a tax credit for your remaining adoption expenses. So as long as your adoption expenses are $26,340 or more, you may be able to receive the full employer-provided benefits as well as the full tax credit/refund. Some employers also offer paid leave of absence for those adopting. Most companies are required by law to offer you unpaid time when you adopt through the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

- Employer Donation Matching
  In addition to ways that you can find funding for adoption, we want to make you aware of ways that you can support Nightlight. Because Nightlight is a non-profit organization, a portion of your fees is considered a tax-deductible donation. If you have paid fees/donations to Nightlight, please consider asking your employer to provide a grant to Nightlight to match your donation. This donation would be a general donation to offset other Nightlight costs and allow us to expand the services we provide to orphans and birth parents around the world. You can see a list of employers who make matching donations at: http://www.nightlight.org/donation-opportunities. Please know that this is not a comprehensive list of employers and you should definitely check with your HR department if your company is not listed at this link.

  If your employer requires you to make donations through United Way, you can direct your Nightlight donation by:

  1) Requesting a Donor Choice Form from your United Way coordinator
  2) Under the section titled, “Specific Care” write in:

AGREEMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL ADOPTION SERVICES

This Agreement is entered into between Nightlight® Christian Adoptions (Nightlight) and _________________________________ (Adopting Parents) in regard to services to be provided by Nightlight to Adopting Parents. Nightlight is a licensed adoption agency that provides services in a variety of areas of the international adoption process, including family assessments (home studies), adoptive placements, post-adoption supervision, and all necessary paperwork for both domestic and foreign governments.

Good communication is essential in a successful adoption. Nightlight encourages Adopting Parents to ask questions to assure that they fully understand the adoption process. If more than one adoption agency is participating in Adopting Parents’ adoption process, it is important to understand which agency will be providing the various services involved in Adopting Parents’ adoption and the fees and costs involved.

INTRODUCTION

As prospective adoptive parents, Adopting Parents are about to embark upon an exciting experience. Adoption can be a very emotional process, and it is sometimes difficult to remember all the details and information Nightlight has provided concerning the adoption. Please refer to this important information throughout your adoption process. Since this is important information we ask you to sign or initial these documents as verification you have received and read them.

Adoption placements have certain risks, which may or may not be known at the time of placement or may never be known by us. The purpose of this statement is to set forth several, but not all, of the significant risks associated with entering into an international adoption plan. Adopting Parents are urged to review this document, and all documents Nightlight asks Adopting Parents to sign, with an attorney or anyone else Adopting Parents choose. Also, Nightlight wants to emphasize to you that once the adoption is finalized by the court, or an administrative body in some countries, you will have the same rights and responsibilities toward your adopted child that biological parents have to their biological child and you will be subject to the same duties and obligations.

The amount of information available to us varies from placement to placement. As a result, certain risks may become known to us and/or become significant to the placement. Adopting Parents understand that as significant, material information becomes known to us, it will be disclosed to Adopting Parents so that Adopting Parents can review it and possibly reevaluate their participation in the proposed adoption placement. Adopting Parents also understand and acknowledge that not all information will be known to us or knowable by us, and it is possible that all of the information, both known and unknown, may create risks and have an effect on the future health, social and/or emotional development of the child.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

As used in this document, the following terms are defined as follows:

"Adoptive Parents" and "Adopting Parents" or "they" or "you" or "your" refers to the individuals, whether one or two persons, whose names and signatures appear at the end of this document.

"Agency" and "Nightlight" or "us" or "our" refers to Nightlight Christian Adoptions.

“Partner Placing Agency” refers to any U.S. domestic agency which Nightlight works with to accomplish adoptions in the specific foreign country from which Adopting Parents seek to adopt.
"Referral Source" refers to any person, agency or organization which refers children in a foreign country to Adopting Parents for purposes of an adoption.

"Foreign government" refers to any government entity, whether national or local, in a country outside of the United States.

POST ADOPTION SUPERVISION

Most countries require the adopting parents’ home study agency to supervise the adoption for a period of time; usually one to five years or, for some countries, until the adopted child is 18. Nightlight will provide Adopting Parents with the specific post adoption requirements of the child’s country of origin prior to the referral of a child, but cautions you that these requirements may be amended by the foreign country at any time prior to the adoption of your child. This means that it is necessary for the home study agency to visit Adopting Parents periodically during this period and to submit a post-adoption report to Nightlight’s International Division after each visit. This report is then translated and forwarded to the child’s country of origin. The home study agency will charge Adopting Parents a fee for this service. Many home study agencies require that all post-adoption fees be paid in advance, and in many cases to pay a refundable deposit to assure compliance with requirements for post adoption reporting and registration of the child’s passport with the consulate of the child’s country of origin. If Adopting Parents live in Nightlight’s licensed area, Nightlight requires Adopting Parents to use our home study services. Families utilizing the services of another home study and post-adoption reporting agency are advised that their agency must have a Supervised Provider or Exempt Provider contract on file with Nightlight. The agency must have or be in the process of obtaining their Hague Accreditation, unless this requirement is specifically waived by Nightlight.

Adopting Parents hereby agree to cooperate with Nightlight and their home study agency in scheduling these post-adoption visits on a timely basis and providing Nightlight with the resulting post-adoption reports, together with a minimum of six (6) current photographs of the adopted child(ren). In addition, the Adopting Parents agree to register their child(ren)’s passports either with the foreign ministry within the child’s country of origin or with that country’s Embassy within the time specified, if required by the child’s country of origin. Adopting Parents waive any right to confidentiality of information pertaining to their adoption if it is necessary for Nightlight to seek to enforce these obligations by Adopting Parents.

Foreign countries frequently hold Nightlight, its Partner Placing Agency and the home study agency responsible for the Adopting Parents cooperating with and complying with passport registration and post adoption reporting requirements. Adopting Parents specifically understand and agree that they are liable for any damages incurred by Nightlight, or any Partner Placing Agency, and the home study agency, including consequential damages resulting from a loss of the right or ability to conduct adoption activities in the subject foreign country, caused by Adopting Parents’ intentional or negligent failure to comply with passport registration or post adoption reporting requirements. Because this requirement is so critical to the continuation of adoptions from the subject country, Adopting Parents have initialed the box below to verify they fully understand their obligations.

ADOPTION FINALIZATION -- DISRUPTIONS

In some countries, the adoption is not finalized before you return to the United States with your child. Sometimes you will be given guardianship or some other form of temporary legal custody which will qualify you to bring the child to the United States and then finalize the adoption at that time. If the adoption has not been finalized in the foreign country, Adopting Parents agree to initiate legal proceedings to finalize the adoption of their child in the United States within thirty (30) days of their legal ability to do so.

The point in time when an adoption is finalized is important to the adopting family, the child and the foreign placement authority. Prior to the point of finalization, the adoption proceedings may be terminated by the adopting family, the child (usually if over 10 years of age) or the foreign placement authority. This would be a ‘disruption.’ In the case of an international adoption that has not yet been finalized in the foreign country, this is an option legally available to all parties. The officials in the foreign country must be notified and included in any decisions made. In the event of a disruption, Nightlight will take all reasonable steps to find another family for the child, in consultation with the foreign placement... authority. Until such placement can be made and another adopting family assumes custody of the child, Adopting Parents agree to be financially responsible for the child, including, but not limited to, temporary care, medical costs, and the costs of returning the child to the foreign country if necessary.

Adopting Parents further understand that, like obligations under post adoption reporting described above, failure to complete the adoption of their child as soon as they are legally able to do so and within the requirements of the foreign country, will subject them to liability for any damages to Nightlight, its Partner Placing Agency and the home study agency resulting therefrom.

FEES AND COSTS

The total amount paid to Nightlight for Program Fees, in-country fees, government fees, and out-of-pocket costs will vary depending upon the country from which Adopting Parents adopt and the age of the child adopted. The nature of international adoption makes it impossible to predict the exact Estimated Client Coordinated Expenses. Estimated Client Coordinated Expenses are only an estimate and may be more or less in Adopting Parents’ specific adoption. The Program Fees for the country Adopting Parents have chosen, together with an estimate of Adopting Parents’ other costs and expenses, and the time when payments are due, are outlined on Attachment A to this Agreement.

Nightlight provides clients with monthly statements only if there has been activity on the case or if a balance is outstanding. All fees and costs are due and payable in accordance with the fee schedule or when billed. Agency program fees are subject to change with 90 day’s notice. Any such fee increase will not apply to families who have completed their dossier and paid the dossier phase fees. Fees must be paid by check; credit card payments for fees will not be accepted. Adoption fees, especially those paid to agencies, facilitators or others in a foreign country may change at any point in the adoption process. This may be due to economic circumstances, the need for additional services required by the foreign country and/or United States, or for reasons unknown to us. Nightlight will inform Adopting Parents when Nightlight becomes aware of any change in such fees. However, Nightlight cannot control nor limit any increase in these charges. Adopting Parents understand and acknowledge that they are responsible for the fees they pay to anyone other than us, and that Nightlight is not responsible nor liable for any increase in those fees.

In certain circumstances Adopting Parents may pay fees to agencies, governments, facilitators or others in a foreign country. If Adopting Parents’ adoption does not happen for any reason, they may or may not receive any refund of fees they have paid or Nightlight has paid on their behalf to the foreign sources. Adopting Parents agree that Nightlight is not liable nor in any way responsible to pay to Adopting Parents or obtain for Adopting Parents a refund of such fees, although Nightlight will make reasonable efforts to do so. In general, Nightlight does not collect fees or costs in advance from Adopting Parents. However, if Adopting Parents have paid fees and/or costs in advance and terminate this contract, any unearned fees and/or costs will be refunded to the Adopting Parents within sixty (60) days.

Fees and costs paid or payable to us for services rendered in connection with Adopting Parents’ adoption are non-refundable in accordance with the Fee Schedule provided to them. It is important to understand that Adopting Parents are paying for services provided to them or for the benefit of their child. Although fees and costs are generally phased over the course of the adoption, they should never be construed as payments in exchange for a child.

GENERAL RISKS IN INTERNATIONAL ADOPTIONS

Adopting Parents understand that there are significant risks in pursuing an international adoption. Nightlight will diligently pursue the successful completion of an adoption for Adopting Parents, but Adopting Parents acknowledge that Nightlight cannot control all aspects of the process nor guarantee a successful outcome. Completing an application and/or enrolling in our program does not guarantee the placement of a child with them. Further, Adopting Parents understand that while a foreign country may try to honor Adopting Parents’ requests for specific characteristics in a child (such as age), this might not be possible. Nightlight also may not be able to secure a referral of a child from the foreign country Adopting Parents want to adopt from and/or with the characteristics they desire. While Nightlight will try to accommodate Adopting Parents’ desires, Nightlight cannot guarantee that it will be able to do so.
LOST REFERRALS

Adopting Parents understand that a specific child may be referred to Adopting Parents, but that referral may be lost for any of several reasons which are beyond our control. For example, a child may become too ill for placement; the child may not be available within the time frame Adopting Parents desire or within the foreign country’s time limitations; or it may be determined that the child will never be legally free for adoption.

The United States government may change immigration or other rules which then preclude Adopting Parents from proceeding with adopting the child referred to Adopting Parents. The United States government may refuse to issue the necessary visa for the child to enter this country due to problems with Adopting Parents’ situation or due to problems in the foreign country.

Sometimes the foreign country or independent referral source will withdraw a referral with or without explanation. This can happen because of a change in the foreign country’s local or national politics, a change in officials, increased concern within the foreign country regarding international adoptions of their children, a relative coming forward to claim the child, or a foreign national desiring to adopt the child. Adopting Parents understand that these events are not under our control, and Nightlight cannot change decisions made by a foreign government.

MEDICAL, DEVELOPMENT AND EMOTIONAL RISKS

Nightlight cannot predict an adoptive child’s mental or physical development, emotional and/or personality characteristics, health, medical problems, learning disabilities, intellectual ability, hyperactivity, attention deficits, attachment and/or bonding issues, appearance or inherited characteristics. Nightlight will pass on to Adopting Parents all information that is provided to us by the referral source and/or foreign government or agency.

Adopting Parents understand and acknowledge that the medical and social information given to us by the referral source, governmental agency or by hospitals or doctors and passed on to Adopting Parents may be incomplete or erroneous. It is even possible that some of these sources of information may intentionally give incorrect information or fail to give important information to us. Adopting Parents should consult with a pediatrician, OB-GYN or appropriate medical specialist to review such information and provide Adopting Parents with an opinion regarding this information, or absence of such information, before accepting referral of any child.

Adopting Parents further understand and acknowledge that a referred child may have undiagnosed or misdiagnosed medical, development, emotional or physical problems which may be temporary or permanent. Such problems may not be apparent until after the child is in Adopting Parents’ home. Nightlight cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of any information given to us about the child, including the child’s age, or the results of any testing done on the child in the foreign country.

Nightlight does not assume any duty to verify the information given to us by referral sources, governmental agencies, hospitals, doctors or other sources nor will Nightlight make an independent investigation into the child’s background and health or social situation. Adopting Parents agree not to expect or rely upon us to verify or investigate the truth of information provided to us by the referral source or other parties at the time of referral or in the future.

Adopting Parents specifically agree to hold us harmless and not to pursue any legal action against us in any way at any time for the child’s physical, emotional or mental health or development or ability to integrate into Adopting Parents’ family.

TIME FRAME

International adoptions are unpredictable in many ways, one of them being the time frame in which Adopting Parents will receive a referral or a placement of a child with Adopting parents. There can be no assurances or guarantees that Adopting Parents’ adoption will proceed in any specific length of time. For example, the adoption may be delayed or discontinued by the foreign country for reasons either explained or unknown. The court in the foreign country may not approve the adoption or may withdraw approval of the licensing or investigating body in either the United States or the foreign country.
International adoptions are also at the mercy of international politics and national policies of the foreign country. A change in government may change Adopting Parents’ opportunity to adopt in that country. An international crisis or circumstances such as a war or terrorist action in either the United States or the foreign country may delay or stop adoptions. These factors can impact Adopting Parents’ adoption at any point in the adoption process.

TRAVEL

Travel to and from foreign countries can be uncertain. Although Adopting Parents may be given a specific date for travel to the foreign country, this date may change unexpectedly. Once Adopting Parents arrive in a foreign country, events there may delay their return to the United States through circumstances of which Nightlight is unaware or which arise while Adopting Parents are there. Adopting Parents agree that Nightlight is not liable or otherwise obligated for any expenses Adopting Parents incur in traveling to a foreign country to receive the referral of a child, to participate in the adoption of a child or to bring a child back to the United States or which arise due to changes in travel plans or times.

CONTROL OVER OTHER ENTITIES

There are many governmental and non-governmental agencies involved in an international adoption over which Nightlight has no control. Nightlight cannot guarantee the actions of any agency or individual over whom Nightlight does not have complete control. This includes foreign officials, foreign attorneys, foreign referral sources, foreign immigration and governmental agencies.

In addition, Nightlight cannot control the actions of the United States Citizen and Immigrant Services (CIS) or the United States Embassy Consulate officials in a foreign country. Nightlight cannot guarantee that the U.S. Embassy Consulate office which processes a child’s immigration visa will find that the child meets the definition of an “orphan”. This determination is solely within the discretion of the CIS. Further, in certain cases, the CIS has stopped children from entering the U.S. for an adoption due to problems in the foreign country. Nightlight will keep Adopting Parents informed of the CIS situation with regard to a child Adopting Parents wish to adopt, but Nightlight cannot guarantee the child will be allowed to enter the United States.

LEGAL RISKS

In any adoption there may be legal risks. These include the risk that the agency or court in the foreign country may not approve Adopting Parents’ adoption or will change the requirements for Adopting Parents to complete the adoption. There may be issues raised by a termination of parental rights in the foreign court based on a relinquishment by the birth mother only, not the birth father. If Adopting Parents must finalize or confirm Adopting Parents’ adoption when Adopting Parents return home with a child, the court in Adopting Parents’ state may not approve the adoption or may have additional requirements Adopting Parents must meet beyond those of the foreign court or the CIS. Nightlight strongly recommends that Adopting Parents consult with an attorney regarding any issues which are of concern to Adopting Parents.

Although risks can never be totally eliminated, Nightlight encourages Adopting Parents to talk to other adoptive parents and adoption professionals who are familiar with international adoptions to better understand the risks involved.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

The Adoptive Parents acknowledge and understand all of the risks of adoption as set forth in this document. Of course it is difficult, if not impossible, to foresee all potential risks involved in an international adoption, but it is our desire to be as transparent as possible. Adoptive Parents wish to pursue an adoption plan and to seek an adoptive placement, knowing and assuming all the medical, legal and other risks of adoption described or reasonably implied in this document. Adoptive Parents agree to the following waiver understanding that it is limited and specific to those risks which have been described or reasonably implied in this document.

Adoptive Parents hereby waive, release, and forever discharge Nightlight, its Partner Placing Agency, its employees, social workers, independent contractors, independent contract social workers, officers, directors, successor corporations and affiliates from any and all claims, demands, charges, causes of action, liabilities, penalties, costs and expenses related to the risks described or reasonably implied herein, including attorney fees, that Adoptive Parents who sign this waiver may have now or in the future against Nightlight, its Partner Placing Agency or its employees, social workers, independent contractors, independent contract social workers, officers, directors, successor corporations, affiliates and any third party, including, but not limited to, any foreign agency, lawyer, facilitator, governmental body, nation or any other individual or organization. Nothing herein shall relieve any party of liability imposed by law for intentional acts or gross negligence and not subject to a general waiver of liability.

Adoptive Parents hereby waive, release and forever discharge Nightlight, its Partner Placing Agency, its employees, attorneys, social workers, independent contractors, independent contract attorneys, independent contract social workers, principals, officers, shareholders, owners, directors, successor corporations and affiliates from any and all claims, demands, charges, causes of action, liabilities, penalties, costs and expenses, including attorney fees, that Adoptive Parents who sign this waiver may have now or in the future against any third party related to the risks described or reasonably implied herein, including but not limited to any foreign agency, lawyer, facilitator, governmental body, nation or any other individual or organization.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

Nothing in this Agreement and nothing in Nightlight's statements to Adopting Parents shall be construed as a promise or guarantee about the outcome of Adopting Parents' adoption. Because of the nature of international adoption, Nightlight makes no representations as to the outcome of an adoption. No guarantee can be given, although a candid exchange of questions and views between Nightlight and Adopting Parents is always encouraged.

In accordance with Hague Standard 96.41, Nightlight has provided Adopting Parents with a copy of its Complaint Policy, Complaint Form and information on the Complaint Registry as Attachment B to this Agreement. By executing this Agreement, Adopting Parents acknowledge receiving this information.

Attorneys' Fees. If any action is necessary to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California. The parties agree that the proper venue for any action under this agreement shall be Orange County, California.

Complaint Policy. Nightlight's Complaint Policy is explained in Attachment B.

Providing false information or failing to disclose required information is grounds for terminating Adopting Parents’ application without refund of any fees paid.

This agreement was entered into this ____ day of __________, 20____ and shall be governed in accordance with the laws of the state of California.

Adopting Parent                                                                 Adopting Parent

Nightlight Christian Adoptions, by ______________________________________________________________

In accordance with Hague Standard 96.36 (a), Nightlight confirms that it prohibits its employees and agency from giving money or other consideration, directly or indirectly to a child’s parent(s), other individual(s) or an entity as payment for the child or as an inducement to release the child. If permitted or required by the child’s country of origin, an agency may remit reasonable payments for activities related to the adoption proceedings, pre-birth and birth medical costs, the care of the child, the care of the birth mother while pregnant and immediately following birth of the child, or the provision of welfare and child protection services generally. Permitted or required contributions shall not be remitted as payment for the child or as an inducement to release the child.

A signed copy of this Agreement will be returned to Adopting parents, along with instructions for proceeding with Adopting parents’ international adoption from Nightlight’s coordinating office. Please mail signed Agreement and other application documents to:

The cost of operating an international adoption program is substantial and increasing with the additional compliance requirements under the Hague Convention on Intercountry Adoption. The nature of international adoption makes it impossible to predict the exact costs you will incur, but we believe the estimates above are realistic. Although we strive to maintain a predictable fee schedule, unexpected increase in our costs may necessitate an increase in fees. Therefore, fees may be increased upon 90 day notice.

Program fees are paid in phases and are non-refundable. Nightlight establishes a budget for costs each year based on the number of adoptions it estimates completing during the year from each country. Based on these estimates, we establish program fees, taking into consideration the amount of staff time and expenses which will be involved in maintaining the program. Of course it would be prohibitive to allocate all of the costs (payroll, rent, insurance, supplies, travel, etc.) to one adoption in one program.

Please initial on both this page and the following page that you have received a copy of this List of Fees and Estimated Costs.

NIGHTLIGHT® CHRISTIAN ADOPTIONS
INTERNATIONAL ADOPTIONS – COMPLAINT POLICY AND PROCEDURES

POLICY:
Nightlight Christian Adoptions (Nightlight) provides services that are meant to be in the best interests of the children served through this agency. Nightlight aims to provide open, accountable and efficient service to our clients. While every effort is taken, sometimes mistakes are made. We aspire to learn from any mistakes and the complaint procedure is seen as very important in this continuous program of improvement.

PROCEDURE:
Any complaints that are filed with Nightlight will be reviewed, investigated and responded to within 30 days according to the following procedures. Expedited review will occur with time sensitive concerns or those related to allegations of fraud. While Nightlight recognizes that some clients are more difficult and/or demanding than others, it is the agency’s goal to satisfy all clients possible. When a client files a complaint, it is assumed that it is because the client’s problem was not adequately resolved at a lower organizational level. Complaints filed in good faith by a client will never result in any adverse consequences to the client. However, it is possible that the inability of the agency to resolve problems with a particular client may mean that the client would be better served with a different agency. Nightlight will always attempt to resolve client complaints and successfully complete the services for which the client engaged the agency.

The following steps will be taken for complaints:
1. Any birth parent, adoptive parent, prospective adoptive parent or adoptee may file a complaint with Nightlight regarding any services provided by Nightlight, its staff, Board of Directors or its supervised providers related to an issue of compliance with the Hague Convention, IAA or regulations implementing the IAA, or any service provided by the agency.

2. Anyone filing a complaint is requested to complete a ‘complaint form.’ (See attached form). This form requests the information needed to investigate the stated problem.

3. The Executive Director or his designee will review all complaints. The complaint will be fully investigated and a response given to the client within 30 days of Nightlight receiving the complaint or grievance.

4. The complaints and their outcome will be filed and available for review in the Nightlight office in Southern California.

5. On request by the Accrediting Entity – COA or a State Department designee — Nightlight will provide a summary of all complaints received by any birth, adoptive or prospective parent or adoptee about any of the services or activities of Nightlight that raise an issue with compliance with the Hague Convention, IAA or regulations related to either.

6. If the individual who has filed the complaint is not satisfied with the response by the executive director, they may then appeal in writing to the Nightlight Board of Directors for review of the complaint.

7. The Board of Directors will review the complaint at the next regularly scheduled Board Meeting following the submission of all required documentation from the individual. The Board of Directors will make a decision within thirty (30) days following the submission of all necessary documentation. A majority vote by the Board of Directors will determine the decision.

8. A copy of the final decision will be placed in the client file. The final determination will be released to the client, but not the reasoning behind it.

All decisions are based on what is in the best interests of the child. A Complaint Registry is available on the U.S. State Department Web Site and can be accessed at: http://adoptionusca.state.gov/HCRWeb/WelcomeForm.aspx

We (I) have reviewed the Complaint Policy and Procedure for Nightlight Christian Adoptions. I/We agree to abide by the procedure listed above and ultimately the decision of Nightlight Board of Directors if they should be called upon to determine the outcome of a complaint.
